"Crocodile on the Sandbank" by Elizabeth Peters

Thursday, May 23
4pm
Wayfarer Coffee Roasters

Set in 1884, strong-willed Amelia Peabody, a self-proclaimed spinster, decides to use her ample inheritance to indulge her passion, Egyptology. On her way to Egypt, Amelia encounters a young woman named Evelyn Barton-Forbes. The two become fast friends and travel on together, encountering mysteries, missing mummies, and Radcliffe Emerson, a dashing and opinionated archaeologist who doesn't need a woman's help -- or so he thinks.

Copies are available at the front desk.

Soothing Stitches

Tuesday, May 28
4-6pm
Volpe Room

Need an escape? Join us for social needle crafting, classical music, and tea! Knitters, crocheters, cross-stitchers, all are welcome. Create a moment of Zen with your yarn, a hot cup of chamomile tea, and some Bach.

Cruising New Hampshire History

Thursday, May 30
6:30pm
Laconia Rotary Hall

Join us for a talk with author, Michael Bruno, who explores the 255 historical markers that dot the state highways and roads in his book Cruising New Hampshire History: A Guide to New Hampshire's Roadside Historical Markers. The New Hampshire roadside historical markers commemorate significant events and individuals from the first settlers arriving in 1623 to notable individuals who helped define what New Hampshire is today.

Copies of the book will be available for sale and signing after the presentation.
